

20% WEDDING VIDEOGRAPHY PROMOTION TERMS & CONDITIONS

Premium Wedding Videography Package

1. Promotion

This promotion provides eligible clients with 20% off the standard price of the Premium Wedding Videography Package offered by Nanikanter ("Videographer").

The 20% discount applies only to the standard package price and does not apply to travel costs, additional services, optional upgrades or other expenses unless expressly stated otherwise.

2. Promotion & Claim Period

The 20% promotion is available for bookings confirmed from 1 August 2026 until 20 September 2026.

To qualify, the Client must confirm their booking and pay the required booking fee/deposit within this promotional period. A verbal enquiry, tentative date hold or quote does not constitute a confirmed booking.

3. Eligible Wedding Dates

The promotion applies to weddings taking place from 1 November 2026 until 31 May 2028, subject to the Videographer's availability.

Existing bookings are excluded. The promotion cannot be applied retrospectively to bookings confirmed before the promotional period.

4. Availability

All bookings are strictly subject to the Videographer's availability. The promotion does not guarantee availability on any particular wedding date.

Dates may be unavailable due to existing bookings, travel commitments, personal commitments or other circumstances. Clients are encouraged to enquire early.

5. What the Discount Includes

The 20% discount applies to the agreed price of the Premium Wedding Videography Package. Unless otherwise stated in the Client's booking agreement, the package includes:

- Up to 12 consecutive hours of wedding-day videography coverage.
- A professionally edited 7–10 minute wedding highlight film / after-movie.
- Three short-form vertical videos suitable for social media.
- Premium ceremony recording captured using a secondary B-camera.
- Premium recording of all wedding speeches captured using a secondary B-camera.
- Digital delivery of the agreed deliverables.

6. Travel Costs

Travel is not included in the 20% discount. Depending on the wedding location, additional travel and accommodation costs may apply.

Any applicable travel costs will be communicated before the booking is finalised. The 20% discount does not apply to flights, accommodation, rental vehicles, fuel, ferry costs or other travel-related expenses.

7. Additional Services

The 20% discount applies only to the specified Premium Wedding Videography Package. Additional services, upgrades or requests are charged separately at the Videographer's applicable rates.

These may include additional coverage hours, additional videographers, additional social videos or films, drone coverage, raw footage, additional travel/accommodation, or other services not expressly included.

8. Booking & Payment

A booking is confirmed only once the Client has accepted the applicable booking terms and paid the required booking fee/deposit.

The remaining balance must be paid according to the Client's booking agreement. The discounted price applies only to bookings confirmed during the promotional period.

9. Cancellation & Refunds

Cancellation is subject to the cancellation terms contained in the Client's booking agreement. The 20% discount does not create any additional entitlement to a refund.

10. Rescheduling

If the Client requests to change their wedding date, the Videographer will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the new date, subject to availability.

If the new wedding date falls outside the promotional period or after 31 May 2028, the Videographer reserves the right to recalculate the booking at the standard package price.

11. Pricing

The 20% discount is calculated from the Videographer's standard advertised package price at the time the promotion is offered.

The promotion cannot be combined with another discount, offer, promotion, voucher or negotiated rate unless expressly agreed. The Videographer reserves the right to correct obvious pricing or advertising errors.

12. Transferability

The promotion is non-transferable unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Videographer.

13. Creative Direction & Editing

The Videographer retains creative discretion over filming, editing, music selection, colour grading, storytelling and final presentation.

The package does not include unlimited revisions or complete re-edits based solely on subjective creative preferences. Additional editing outside the agreed scope may incur additional charges.

14. Raw Footage

Raw, unedited or unprocessed camera footage is not included unless expressly agreed in writing and agreed on a price.

15. Music & Third-Party Content

Music used in final films will be selected from appropriate music sources or licences. The Videographer cannot guarantee unrestricted use of a particular song or audio track on every social media or streaming platform.

16. Copyright & Usage

Copyright in all original footage and edited works remains with the Videographer. The Client receives a non-exclusive licence to use delivered films for personal, non-commercial purposes.

The Client may not sell, commercially licence, materially alter or commercially exploit the footage without prior written permission.

17. Promotional Use

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Videographer may use footage captured during the wedding for portfolio, website, social media, advertising and other promotional purposes.

18. Circumstances Beyond Control

The Videographer will not be responsible for failure or delay caused by circumstances beyond reasonable control, including serious illness or injury, extreme weather, natural disasters, government restrictions, venue closure or travel disruption.

Where reasonably possible, the Videographer will attempt to provide an alternative solution.

19. Acceptance of Promotion Terms

By accepting the 20% promotional offer and confirming a booking, the Client acknowledges and agrees to these Terms & Conditions and any additional booking agreement provided by the Videographer.

Nanikanter reserves the right to amend, extend or withdraw the promotion at its discretion, provided confirmed bookings remain subject to the terms agreed at the time of booking.
